

Women's World Banking

Women's World Banking

Ade Ashaye
Executive Vice President, Network
aa@womensworldbanking.org
Network@womensworldbanking.org

A woman with dark curly hair, wearing a black sleeveless top and a colorful beaded bracelet, is smiling and looking to her left while holding a smartphone. She is standing in what appears to be a market or a community center, with other people and shelves of goods visible in the background. The image is slightly blurred, focusing on the woman.

For the past 40 years,
Women's World Banking
has been powering economies

by investing in women

The ways Women's World Banking drives impact

Increasing activation and engagement for women

Investing in women-focused Institutions

Building leaders and gender-diverse teams

Global Network – 51 Diverse Group of Financial Service Providers in 28 Countries

Challenges.....

Unpredictability and uncertainty

Staff and client health and wellbeing

Leadership in a time of crisis

Losing the client connection

Maintaining mission to serve the vulnerable and opportunities

Forward looking and future thinking

Customer focus

Innovation and digital

Supportive government and funders

Supporting fight against Covid-19

Focal Areas during Covid-19

Changing Network Member and Donor needs

Government Benefits for Women's Resilience

Health & Business Continuity Insurance

CONFIDENTIAL

Women's World Banking